Committee Members needed

There are currently vacancies for both Librarian, and Newsletter Editor open. If you are looking for a more rewarding and involved weaving experience, and are interested in one of these positions, please contact Suzanne Chappell either at the meeting, by phone or by email (see page 2).

Membership dues for the 2010-2011 year are due by September 1. Please take the time to fill out the form (Page 3) so we may offer programs and workshops that interest you.
Mail or give to Larry Keen. Please do not give it to any other board member to pass on to Larry; it gets too confusing.

Recap of the Studio 66 Retreat And More Wedge Weave

Date: May 10, 2010

Where: San Bernardino Co. Museum
2024 Orange Tree Lane
Redlands, CA 92374

When: 9:00 a.m.

Bring: Coffee cup
Items to show and tell
Materials list - see below

The May program will highlight the Studio 66 Retreat of the prior weekend. IEHG members who attended the retreat will bring share and tell from the retreat too.

More wedge weave (weaving on the diagonal) with Maggie Aguirre is on the agenda too. Some of you did not get all the way across your first row at the March meeting. Hopefully you still have all the materials at your fingertips to bring for more instruction and practice. I plan to give up the shoe box top and bring my little 4-harness loom.

You will need to bring the following supplies:

1) A warped weaving device - either a table loom, tapestry loom, Sterilite lid (shoebox or bigger), or picture frame warped at 5epi with cotton carpet rug warp or something similar. The width of the warp should be a minimum of 6 inches. Twine across the bottom edge to evenly space the warp.

2) A minimum of 3 colors of single ply (preferably) wool in similar size. If you bring 2-ply wool, check if you can break it by pulling it apart, which makes a better join than cutting.

-Hand beater or dinner fork

-Tapestry needle if you bring a flat warped board for a loom

- Scissors

This technique works well for rugs and wall hangings. Please call Maggie if you have any questions at 951-325-8116

Last month we had an opportunity to mingle with fellow weavers at the Weavers Barn in Vista (see below). On Friday, May 21, we have been invited by the Bobbinwinders Guild to tour the Autry National Center of the American West.

Los Angeles County provides a charter bus for the excursion as long as forty persons attend, so participants will travel in style, not have to fight traffic and will have the opportunity to visit with some more fellow weavers. Current exhibits include The Art of Native American Basketry, a comprehensive exhibition of more than 250 Native American baskets from more than 100 cultures, arranged in eleven geographic regions. And there will be a docent-lead tour of another exhibit, Homelands: How Women Made the West, at 1 pm. The following link gives information about other ongoing exhibits. <http://theautry.org/exhibitions/>

What: Autry National Center of the American West Tour

Date: Friday, May 21, 2010

Time: Arrive by 9 a.m.

Cost: $4.50 for seniors over 60

$6.50 for persons under 60

Location: Charter Oak Center (corner of Cienega and Bonnie Cove)
20350 Cienega Ave.
Covina, CA 91724

Return time: Buses will leave the Autry at 2:30 p.m. to return to the Charter Oak Center.

Sue Anderson (Weaverbirds mascot designer for 2009 ASCH Conference) is in charge of reservations. You may contact her about tickets by email or phone: kandsander@sbcglobal.net or 626-285-2651. Checks made out to Bobbinwinders may be sent to her home address:
6240 Provence Rd.

San Gabriel, CA 91775

She will need your phone number in case the trip has to be cancelled due to low attendance. Please contact Sue ASAP if you wish to attend. Lunch is available at the Museum Café, or you may bring your lunch and eat at tables outside at the Museum Café.

I am attending with my husband, Glen, and hope to have the pleasure of your company. It is sure to be a delightful as well as educational time.

Suzanne

Comments on April's Meeting at The Weaver's Barn

Benva St Morris, President of the Palomar Handweavers, sent the note below following our visit to the Weavers Barn.

It was such a pleasure having you and your guild members join us for the day and stay for lunch. Everyone I've spoken with from the barn remarked on what a nice visit it was. We should do this more often! (And I wish it were closer, so we really could.)

I feel very fortunate to know and be involved with Bill and the rest of the Museum Weavers. They are like family to me, and I know many others in the group feel the same way. It's a special place for us, and it makes it even more special, on days like today, when we can share it with kindred spirits.

Thank you, Inland Empire Handweavers, for taking the time to travel and visit with us!

Warmest regards,
Benva St. Morris & the Museum Weavers
