Freeform Weaving with Yarn and Beads Instructor Rebecca Smith

Date: September 12th, 2011

Where: San Bernardino County Museum
2024 Orange Tree Lane, Redlands, Ca

When: 9:30 a.m. until 3:30pm

Bring: Bring your own lunch if staying for class

Freeform Weaving with Yarn and Beads Instructor Rebecca Smith

To view her work go to www.rebeccasmithtapestry.com Our project is similar in technique to the bead purse.

Beads or yarn, yarn or beads... Can't decide which you like better? This workshop lets you work with both by teaching you loom weaving techniques for combining beads and yarn. You will learn basic weft-faced weaving techniques using textured metallic yarns, which are interwoven with areas of bead weaving. The techniques are adaptable to curvilinear shapes or geometric patterns to create beautiful contrasts in color and texture. No weaving experience is required. Participants may bring their own loom, or use one provided by the instructor.

Material fee $5.00 if using your own loom, $15.00 if borrowing one from instructor, pre-warped.

Bring your loom pre-warped 2 inches wide, sett 8 epi, using black 10/2 perle cotton or similar yarn.

To reserve a pre-warped loom contact Sallie by September 5, 909-337-1443 or sdscanz@aol.com

Greetings from Gail

High in our mountains, dreaming, creating, and enjoying the company of our weaving and spinning friends, Could it get any better? Thank you Camille, for having our August gathering at your very lovely home, such an inspiring and calming atmosphere.

Fall is really full of exciting weaving events. September we will be back at the Museum and do some tapestry with Rebecca Smith. October is our Shibori Workshop, there are still a couple of spaces left, don't miss out. The leader of this workshop, Dianne Totten will be featured in "Handwoven" Magazine in the September/October issue, I'm sure after that is released all of the spaces will be filled! Dianne will also do our program for the October guild meeting. In February Jason Collingwood from the United Kingdom will present Rug finishes and dazzle us with samples and images of his amazing rugs.

Mark your calendars for the Torrance Weaving Fiber Event November called WeFF on Sunday, November 6th.

Our Program Chair Sallie has some great things planned for us in the upcoming months. Get ready to be inspired and just plain ol' have fun!

Happy Weaving,

Gail

For your amusement.....

The Museum Weavers of the Antique Gas and Steam Engine Museum (AGSEM) will host their first Vista Fiber Arts Fiesta on October 8-9, 2011. This is an excellent opportunity to purchase handcrafted items for oneself or for holiday giving. The Museum Weavers, Palomar Handweavers' Guild, San Diego Creative Weavers Guild, and numerous other vendors will sell raw wool, handspun and hand-dyed yarns, handwoven articles, ethnic textiles, and tools for knitting, spinning and weaving. Vendors include weavers, gourd artists, basket makers, spinners, felters, and yarn merchants. There will be demonstrations of fiber arts, easy fiber projects for visitors to enjoy, and live music. Food can be purchased on site. During the Fiesta the Museum Weavers will lead tours of the Weavers' Barn and its collection, which ranges from farm looms used in the 1800's to modern computer-assisted looms. The Museum Weavers keep about 50 looms in working order and weave rugs and other items on them. They also teach children and adults to weave. The Antique Gas and Steam Engine Museum is located at 2040 North Santa Fe, Vista CA 92083. The Vista Fiber Arts Festival will be open from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM. Admission and parking are free. The Vista Gem & Mineral Society Show will take place on the grounds of AGSEM on the same weekend. Admission to the Gem Show is free. On Saturday only, visitors to the Fiber Arts Fiesta can also see AGSEM's blacksmiths, furniture restorers and model railroaders practicing their crafts on the grounds of the Museum. In conjunction with the Vista Fiber Arts Fiesta, a display of handwoven art and basketry from local guilds will be on view during the entire month of October at the Rancho Buena Vista Adobe (640 Alta Vista Drive in Vista, 760-639-6164).
