Potluck and Auction

Membership is due now $30.00

Greetings from Gail...

Happy Holidays !

We had a wonderful opportunity to gather inspiration from so many sources at our November meeting...hope you have jumped in to that new project that began to take shape on your drive home from the meeting. I came home and tore into one of my studio closets...removed some shelving and inserted some of those wire clip together one foot squares and made a better place to put my spinning fibers ...and in the process rediscovered some pretty dyed fibers that had gotten "lost" you know out of sight out of mind !

Today was the IEHG-WEST Saturday after Turkey Day Fiber Frolic and did we frolic: warping looms, spinning, knitting no matter what we do it is all about fiber. The next gathering will be Saturday, Jan 5 at Gail's. Please plan on joining in the fun.

Our December 10th meeting will be our installation of the new board and committee members, then on to our annual auction and potluck. Please bring some items to be auctioned. Handmade, woven, dyed, knitted, crocheted, felted, books, equipment, yarn, fiber, beads, kits, almost anything (but no white elephants please). This is our major fund raiser for the year and helps to fund the monthly programs so bring good stuff to donate and your cash and check books because we do not accept charge cards !

Remember to bring a dish of your choice for the potluck luncheon

*Happy Weaving,
Gail*
