She writes-Over the years I have learned alot from many people. They have inspired me, kicked me, changed my thinking and have taught me how to work with thread so that I trust myself. Mariellen loves thread-spinning, knitting ad weaving with it. She is focusing on pick up weaving this year.

Greetings from Kathy...

There were fourteen (14) ladies who participated in the Kathe Todd-Hooker tapestry workshop March 8th-10th and twenty-two (22) IEHG members who enjoyed her presentation at the guild meeting on March 11th. Throughout those four days, we were introduced to tapestries from around the world and given detailed instruction to enable us to start our own adventures in tapestry weaving. A huge "thank you" to Janet Castro for coordinating this activity, housing our guest and transporting her to and from the airport.

I find it hard to believe that one quarter of 2013 is now behind us. It has been an enlightening time but we still have many exciting things to look forward to. April 8th Mariellen Boss will visit and share about those persons who have influenced her weaving with the topic "Thanking My Teachers". In May, our own Brenda Hinesley will teach us about "Personal Colors" and June will be our Annual Fashion Show & Luncheon at the home of Bill Kleese in Riverside. For July and August we traditionally meet in the home of an IEHG member so if you are interested in hosting an informal guild get-together, please contact either Maggie Aguirre or Janet Castro. I always look forward to Summer guild meetings--because of the informal atmosphere it affords us an opportunity to visit and get to know each other better.

Spring and summer months are traditionally a time when fiber festivals are held across the country. So please remember to check the IEHG calendar for upcoming So. CA events and keep our web mistress informed of any fiber events you think our members and their families would enjoy. Also, if your travel plans include one of these fiber festivals, please share your experience by submitting an article and photos for inclusion in the IEHG newsletter. That way, those of us who are having a stay-cation feel like we've broadened our horizons.

I'm looking forward to seeing everyone in the coming months. Until then, I will leave you with this quotation: "We sleep, but the loom of life never stops, and the pattern which was weaving when the sun went down is weaving when it comes up in the morning." Henry Ward Becher
