Personal Color Id with Brenda

A Costume Designer by trade, Brenda Hinesley is also a skilled artisan in such mediums as Weaving, Knitting, Beading + Jewelry Making, Sewing + Pattern Drafting and Fine Art.

Her life was changed in the early 1980's after meeting and working with the legendary colorist Suzanne Caygill. Brenda has been a dedicated student and practitioner of Ms. Caygill's Color Harmony Theory for over 30 years. Brenda will present a program outlining the Color Harmony Theory of Ms. Caygill. She wishes to share her knowledge of Color Harmony in nature as expressed through the seasons and by human beings as well. This includes the use of color in clothing, style, home décor, textiles and tactile design.

Greetings from Kathy

I want to thank everyone who attended the April 8th meeting, including our guest speaker and IEHG member Mariellen Boss. I was really motivated by the messages Mariellen shared with us, thanking the many persons who influenced her fiber and personal adventures, but was also jazzed by the active participation of members during the meeting and the beautiful items shared by many. There are many people who influence us along our path of life but I want you to know that the simple act of sharing your projects during our Share & Tell period each meeting has a profound affect on me. I am always in awe of the talent within our guild and aspire to improve my weaving knowledge and techniques with each new project. That being said, I look forward to yet another talented guild member Brenda Hinesley and the topic of "Personal Colors" she has prepared for the May 13th meeting.

Your executive board is in the process of planning for our annual June luncheon and fashion show June 10th and we look forward to seeing everyone at this fun and relaxing event. Due to the productive fundraising from the raffles and annual auction this past year, there will be no charge to guild members for the luncheon; however, there will be a $10 charge for guests. Please remember to send a quick email to me at clackinghen@msn.com to RSVP as soon as possible so that we can have an accurate head count for the caterer. There will also be several guild members with various items for sale before and after the event so don't forget to bring those checkbooks!

Until next time, stay warped!

Kathy
