Presidents message...

Tis the Season!

This is the season of gifts and giving, food and eating, friends and family, love and sharing. It is a time of year I look forward to with anticipation, like a child awaiting Santa's arrival. Every December I write a holiday letter to old friends and family. I have a hard time getting it started, but the reward of writing it and sending it (snail mail) is the joy I get in receiving their annual news. That is often the only time in the year I hear from some of these special people, and it is the thread that keeps our friendship alive. I particularly like it when we get a card with pictures (worth a thousand words!).

If there is room (in the letter) I will tell everyone that I am finishing up my second term as your guild president. My gift of Presidency to you all is expiring, and I'm looking forward to serving under Kathleen as guild liaison (we switched places) and education chair. I do so enjoy getting together with all my guild friends each month; we are all part of a wonderful community. It is a joy to me to see that the guild continues to grow, as does the revival of interest in weaving.

My last formal event as President is our December Live Auction & Potluck. This month's auction is our annual fundraiser which funds all the wonderful programs you partake in throughout the year. As members, you bring in items to be auctioned off to the highest bidder. So send out the invites, gather your gifts to the guild auction, and bring your friends, neighbors, and family to a morning of fun, food and treasures from near and far. For the potluck, bring your favorite starter, main dish, salad, side dish, or dessert to share. And, of course, bring your wallet. Treat yourself, and buy gifts for people on your holiday list!

I hope to see you and a sea of new faces on December 8. If I don't see you there, do have a wonderful holiday season, and keep on weaving.

Suzanne

December Item of Note: Check out your need for reeds and heddles, just in case there are some for sale at the auction this year.

IEHG West: Try to come out to Rancho Cucamonga for the Inland Empire West meeting on the Saturday after Thanksgiving, November 29. The meeting will be at the Scout House located on the campus of Northkirk Presbyterian Church on the southeast corner of Beryl and 19th St.
