Rug Weaving

Featuring Sallie Scanzoni:

Sallie will share with us her adventures into rug weaving with torn strips of Sari fabric which her husband bought for her from India.

Camille and Kathleen will also be bringing rugs they have made to share their techniques with the guild.

Please bring with you rugs and or placemats you have made using your unique techniques or materials. We would like to have a questions and answers time for the members to see what we are doing with rugs or rag weaving.

We will discuss how to get you started on your Guild Challenge!

President's message...

Try Something New!

Hopefully, our guild challenge has set you off on new weaving and spinning ventures. Last month, I demonstrated my newest version of dyeing wool and silk fabrics by the "crock" or "transfer" method of dyeing. There are so many possibilities with this technique and it can be applied to weaving, spinning, quilting, hooking and more. How many new designs can you create? Take that 15-minutes-a-day and apply them to your crock pot and do your own creative designs. I'd love to see whatever you create. You may come up with your own innovative techniques and beautiful designs to share.

If you are still looking for the "new" challenge, be sure to join us in the month of March. Sallie Scanzoni will start us off on her adventure with rug weaving. And, after her presentation, other members will show and share their own rugs for your design pleasure. If you've woven a rug or just have a fascinating rug to share, bring it to the meeting and speak up. We are continually an inspiration to each other.

Happy Weaving & Spinning!

Kathleen Waln
