Felted Flowers:

Featuring Sara Smelt: This will be a 3 hour workshop where you will learn how to make a beautiful felted flower which can be attached to one of your beautiful woven jackets, knitted sweaters, or hats or even a hand bag you have created. Members have received a specific e-mail regarding signing up (if you have not already done so) and the cost for the workshop. All you need to bring is a towel and a pair of scissors. Come prepared to do a little work, laugh and have a lot of fun in the process!

Presidents message...

Greetings!

Last month's programs was a treat! Sallie Scanzoni stepped up to the plate to offer creative inspiration for all of us. Her journey with sari silk and her rugs was a delight to discover. ( I know several of us have pooled our resources to purchase some sari silk to take our own "journey" with the fiber and rug making processes. ) But our meeting was not limited to one person, as several guild members brought examples of their rugs and discussed the weaving process they used. I was so impressed with the body of work from our guild members and seeing it all together at one time was both educational and delightful.

Think about your "body of work." What kinds of things do you like to create and how many do you have? Although I like to weave many types of structures and different items, I seem to have A LOT of scarves. I love to wear them and enjoy the process of weaving many types of patterns with a quick item like a scarf. When I travel, I often buy scarves created by other weavers as further inspiration for my work.

I encourage you to be passionate about your creative work. Do it every day, even if it's only for a short time. If you're stuck in a rut, try something new. (Remember, that's our challenge this year.) Show off some of your "body of work" at our next show and share. You'll be glad you did.

Happy Weaving & Spinning!
