Presidents message...

Hello to you all,

I'd like to thank Janet Castro for taking on the President's role as well as her job as Program Chair. Thanks so Janet for wearing several hats at our meeting in April. Speaking of that meeting, I have heard that the felting program with Sara Smelt was excellent. I was so sorry to miss it and participate with you in your felting experience. I hope that you all will bring your felted flowers for our May show and share. I'm sure everyone will enjoy seeing the results of the "April (felted) Flowers!"

Our future programs look very promising. In May we will feature Trudy Sonia from the Southern California Handweaving Guild. She'll be discussing block weaving. You'll love to create weaving designs with blocks and we will all learn a great deal from her presentation.

In June we will have our now "traditional" luncheon and extended show and share of our weaving, spinning, sewing, felting and other creative arts. Bring in your guild challenge project "Weaving Something New!" It will be a lovely day spent at Bill Kleese's beautiful home in Riverside. Let Pat Eickman or Janet Castro know you'll be attending so that we can order the proper amount of food for the lunch. Please feel free to invite a guest (and tell Pat Eickman!), but remember that non-members will pay a $10.00 fee for the delicious lunch.

Keep weaving, spinning and creating!

Kathleen Waln
