IEHG MEETING CALENDAR

September

Jodi Benowitz

Trunk show

October

Inge Dam

November

Kathleen Waln

Silk scarves

Date: September 14th, 2015

Where: San Bernardino County Museum
2024 Orange Tree Lane, Redlands, CA

Felting

Jodi Benowitz will do a trunk show showing new work in felting. She is combining her felting techniques with added textures and embroidery techniques. Jodi is constantly looking for new ways to expand and evolve from her original technique of Nuno Felting.

We will also announce the new year's challenge which will be due at the June luncheon.

President's message...

Hello to you all!

I hope you all were able to attend our last meeting in the cool mountains hosted by Camille and Sallie. I was on vacation elsewhere and was unable to attend, but I know our meetings in the mountains are delightful and are not to be missed. Thanks again to our members that volunteer their homes to host and put together our summer meetings. Lynda Yoho, Janet Castro, Camille Babcock and Sallie Scanzoni deserve our gratitude. Be sure to thank them again when you see them at our September meeting.

We have lots to look forward to this year. Many intriguing programs, future workshops, field trips and general fiber excitement has been planned by our intrepid programs chairs. We will give you a full rundown at our meeting in September, but I'd like to highlight Jody Benowitz and her Felting Trunk Show in September, Inge Dam in October -- the three day workshop and program including her beautiful card-weaving. In November we have a member requested Dye Day and our Live Auction in December finishes out 2015. The new year has plenty in store: a return of the remarkable teacher Robyn Spady; Barbara Shapiro with "The Magic of Indigo" and a Field Trip to the Sam Maloof Museum. There's more to come, so keep a look out on our website for our future programs.

Last month I discussed the Board's "Challenge" for the year. ( I'll repeat some of that information here. ) As always, we hope this challenge inspires your creativity and we wish to see your work at our June meeting/luncheon in 2016. This year we encourage you to participate in a "Kitchen Towel Exchange." Make a set of towels of your design, and exchange one of them with another weaver in June. Besides creating something useful and versatile, you'll benefit from having a unique towel from a fellow weaver! We will discuss more details of the challenge at our next meeting.

See you in September. Keep weaving, spinning and creating!

Kathleen Waln

IEHG 2015 Fall Weaving Classes

Suzanne Chappell, Instructor

Weaving for Beginners and Beyond

This class covers weaving on two types of looms:

- 1) Those that have movable shafts controlled by levers or treadles and
- 2) The rigid heddle loom.

The class is designed for:

- 1) Students who have no weaving experience,
- 2) Former weavers that have not woven in a long time and need a refresher course,
- 3) Weavers who still need some guidance, and
- 4) Weavers interested in broadening the scope of their weaving.

A session consists of six 3-hour classes. A proposed Fall sessions is listed below.

At least one project will be completed during the course of instruction, but will require doing some weaving at home. Class size is 3-4 students.

Topics covered include:

|                                     |                          |                                 |   |
|-------------------------------------|--------------------------|---------------------------------|---|
| Basic weave structures with samples | Yarn types and selection | Planning a project              |   |
| Measuring warp                      | Dressing the loom        | Winding a shuttle               |   |
| Weaving and finishing your project  | Simple hem stitching     | Parts of a loom & weaving tools | Reading a project draft (as presented in magazines) |

Costs: $125 for six classes. Materials fee: $15 (for one project) if I supply the yarn.

Optional: Loom rental $10/month, ($150 security deposit)

Private Lessons: $30/hour
