Presidents message...

Hello to you all!

It was so good to see our group gather in September! Our presenter Jody Benowitz had plenty of energy and talent to inspire anyone's creative juices. And so many of our members presented lovely items at show and share--you all are an inspiration to me.

Our Program Chairs have outlined an exciting list of programs and activities for the year. Keep checking our newsletter or website for future meetings. We have an intriguing program coming up in October. Inge Dam, Master Weaver, comes to us for an intriguing workshop and program. She has studied ancient Iron Age Textiles and creates modern fabrics, clothing and handbags with antique techniques. Her work is unique and beautiful! Make sure to check out her website to see her works of art. <<http://ingedam.net/index.html>> The three day guild workshop will feature weaving on a four harness loom and incorporating card weaving (an Iron Age technique) at the same time. We all will see Inge's works of art (and the workshop attendee's work!) at the guild program on October 19th. Remember, this date is the third Monday in October! (We will NOT meet on the second Monday in October.)

In addition to our programs, Guild Liaison Suzanne Chappell, has noted several weaving and fiber festivals near our area worth attending. Check out the fiber vendors at the Vista Fiber Fiesta at the Antique Steam & Gas Engine Museum (and Weaving Barn) October 3-4, 2015. On Sunday November 1st, it's worth the trip out to Torrance, CA for the Southern California Handweaver's Guild Weaving and Fiber Fest (WeFF). And it is not too early to make plans to go to Convergence in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, July 30 - August 6, 2016. We've got so many opportunities to be inspired. Get out there and do it!

See you in October. Keep weaving, spinning and creating!

IEHG 2015 Fall Weaving Classes

Suzanne Chappell, Instructor

Weaving for Beginners and Beyond

This class covers weaving on two types of looms:

- 1) Those that have movable shafts controlled by levers or treadles and
- 2) The rigid heddle loom.

The class is designed for:

- 1) Students who have no weaving experience,
- 2) Former weavers that have not woven in a long time and need a refresher course,
- 3) Weavers who still need some guidance, and
- 4) Weavers interested in broadening the scope of their weaving.

A session consists of six 3-hour classes. A proposed Fall sessions is listed below.

At least one project will be completed during the course of instruction, but will require doing some weaving at home. Class size is 3-4 students.

Topics covered include:

Basic weave structures with samples	Yarn types and selection	Planning a project
Measuring warp	Dressing the loom	Winding a shuttle
Weaving and finishing your project	Simple hem stitching	Parts of a loom & weaving tools
resented in magazines)		Reading a project draft (as

October:

Inge Dam will be conducting a 3 day workshop on using card weaving within regular loom weaving. During our guild meeting (the third Monday in October!!) Inge will show us other directions her weaving has taken her. Hopefully the participants of the workshop will have their pieces to share!

November:

Kathleen Waln will be taking us through an hands on mini-workshop where we will be dyeing silk scarves with old silk ties. Maybe this will be just the right solution to a Christmas or Holiday gift. So start scavenging around for old silk ties. (100% wool will work too)

December:

Get your goodies ready for the annual Auction and Pot Luck Luncheon! Lets make this the best year ever!!
