Presidents message...

Hello to you all,

Our field trip to the Maloof Museum was a treat! Thanks to Bill Kleese, Pat Eickman and Janet Castro for arranging such a delightful experience. If you were not able to join us for the trip, make time to go to the museum with your family and friends.

Touring the Maloof "treasures" was an inspiration to all artists. As you plan your next weaving or spinning project, think back to the tactile smoothness of the wood on his chairs, the color and texture of the various types of lumber he used, or the line of the various art objects he and his wife collected over the years. Your designs can be enhanced with your inspirations from a great artist.

For our April program we will be back at our regular meeting place. We will feature a "Loom-A-Thon!" You'll be able to see demonstrations of many different looms (and wheels) and be able to try them out for yourselves. From sturdy 4 - Shaft Floor looms to tiny, but versatile pin looms, come to experience the many different ways of creating with looms and wheels.

Please note the information about the weaving and spinning exhibit at the Pasadena Museum of History. The opening reception and "Art Night" went off well with hundreds attending. You are all invited to view the exhibit. The museum is open Wednesdays - Sundays 12- 5pm. And Tuesday, April 26th, 6:30-8:30pm, I'll be giving a lecture on Woven Shibori. The closing day Sunday May 15th is The Museums of the Arroyo Day! You're all invited to bring your weaving & spinning to show off from 1- 5pm. Also, IEHG West will be weaving and spinning at the museum April 2nd and May 7th. Come see us at the museum!

Keep weaving, spinning and creating! There's lots out there to see and experience. Don't miss a minute.

IEHG 2015 Fall Weaving Classes

Suzanne Chappell, Instructor

Weaving for Beginners and Beyond

This class covers weaving on two types of looms:

- 1) Those that have movable shafts controlled by levers or treadles and
- 2) The rigid heddle loom.

The class is designed for:

- 1) Students who have no weaving experience,
- 2) Former weavers that have not woven in a long time and need a refresher course,
- 3) Weavers who still need some guidance, and
- 4) Weavers interested in broadening the scope of their weaving.

There may be weavers with various amounts of experience in the same class and there is often a mix of shaft looms and rigid heddle looms.

A session consists of 7 or 8, 3-hour classes (proposed sessions are listed below).

At least one project will be completed during the course of instruction, but will require doing some weaving at home. Some students may start and finish a second project. Classes are limited to 3-4 students.

Classes are conducted at my home studio in Redlands, and require a membership in the IEHG or another local weaving guild.

Students bring their own looms or may rent a table loom from the guild. Looms rent for $10/month and require a $150 security deposit.

Strings Tradition Meets Contemporary Woven Art

March 5 to May 15, 2016

Autumn, by Susan Beeler Anderson, 2015 (25 x 26in)

On March 5, 2016, Pasadena Museum of History will unveil a new exhibition displaying remarkable contemporary and traditional weaving. This art, created by the members of the Bobbinwinder's Guild of the San Gabriel Valley, is inspired by modern global aesthetics and production techniques, as well as historical techniques of weaving and design.

For sixty years, the Bobbinwinder's Guild has fostered the ancient tradition of weaving, producing superb fine and decorative art. In June 1955, when orange groves still dominated the landscape in the Pomona and San Gabriel Valleys, fifteen weavers gathered to celebrate their craft and became the founding members of the organization.

The work of local weavers will be showcased in this exhibition. Examples of looms and other tools of the trade will also be on display, and demonstrations of the weaver's technique will be offered periodically. Dates to watch:

Saturday March 5th -- Opening Reception -- 2-4pm Free Admission!

Friday March 11th -- "Art Night" -- 6-10pm
